LIBEL AND SLANDER

Section No.	Description
1	Definitions
2	Punishment for Libel or Slander

PUBLIC LAW 111-70

CHAPTER 69

LIBEL AND SLANDER

Libel and slander are both methods of defamation. Libel (the former) being expressed by print, writing, pictures, or signs including “internet” public media postings such as Facebook, Twitter, Insta-Gram; the latter (slander) expressed by oral expressions.

SECTION 1: DEFINITIONS

(1) DEFAMATION. The term “defamation” means any action or other proceeding for defamation, libel, slander, or similar claim alleging that forms of speech are false, have caused damage to reputation or emotional distress, have presented any person in a false light, or have resulted in criticism, dishonor, or condemnation of any person.

(2) DOMESTIC COURT. The term “domestic court” means a National court or a court of any Province State of United States of America Republic.

(3) FOREIGN COURT. The term “foreign court” means a court, administrative body, or other tribunal of the United States or any other foreign country.

(4) FOREIGN JUDGMENT. The term “foreign judgment” means a final judgment rendered by a foreign court.

(5) Libel.

(a) a written or oral defamatory statement or representation that conveys an unjustly unfavorable impression

(b)

(1): a statement or representation published without just cause and tending to expose another to public contempt

(2): defamation of a person by written or representational means

(3): the publication of blasphemous, treasonable, seditious, or obscene writings or pictures

(4): the act, tort, or crime of publishing such a libel

(c)

(1): a written statement in which a plaintiff in certain courts sets forth the cause of action or the relief sought

(2) archaic : a handbill especially attacking or defaming someone

(6) Libelant. The complainant or party who files a libel in an ecclesiastical or admiralty case, corresponding to the plaintiff in actions at law.

(7) Libelee. A party against whom a libel has been filed in an ecclesiastical court or in admiralty, corresponding to the defendant in the common-law action.

(8) Slander. The term “Slander” means the speaking of base and defamatory words tending to prejudice another in his reputation, office, trade, business, or means of livelihood. Oral defamation; the speaking of false and malicious words concerning another, whereby injury results to his reputation. An essential element of “slander” is that slanderous words spoken in presence of another than person slandered, and publication is always material and issuable fact for slander. Hence an oral defamation heard only by one who does not understand the language in which it is spoken, is not “slander”.

(9) Slander of Title. The term “Slander of Title” means a false and malicious statement, oral or written, made in disparagement of a person’s title to real or personal property, or some right of his causing him special damage. “Malice” as essential element of “slander of title” purports an intention to vex, injure or annoy another person. An action of slander of title is maintainable only by one who possesses an estate of interest in the property.

(10) Slanderer. The term “slanderer” means one who maliciously and without reason imputes a crime or fault to another of which he is innocent.

SECTION 2: PUNSHMENT FOR LIBEL OR SLANDER.

Any person who shall falsely utter and speak, or falsely write and publish, of and concerning any female of chaste character, any words derogatory of such female's character for virtue and chastity, or imputing to such female acts not virtuous and chaste, or who shall falsely utter and speak, or falsely write and publish, of and concerning another person, any words which from their usual construction and common acceptance are construed as insults and tend to violence and breach of the peace or shall use grossly insulting language to any female of good character or reputation, shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor.

The defendant shall be entitled to prove upon trial in mitigation of the punishment, the provocation which induced the libelous or slanderous words, or any other fact or circumstance tending to disprove malice, or lessen the criminality of the offense.

Liability of Authors, Editors and Proprietors

Each author, editor and proprietor of any book, newspaper or serial publication, is chargeable with the publication of any words contained in any part of such book, or number of such newspaper or serial.

Truth May Be Proved — Malice — Jury to Determine Law and Fact

In all criminal prosecutions for libel, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury, and if it appears to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted. The jury has the right to determine the law and the fact.

Sufficiency of Publication

To sustain a charge of publishing a libel, it is not needful that the words or things complained of should have been read or seen by another. It is enough that the accused knowingly parted with the immediate custody of the libel under circumstances which exposed it to be read or seen by any other person than himself.

Report of Public Proceeding

No reporter, editor, or proprietor of any newspaper is liable to any prosecution for a fair and true report of any judicial, legislative, or other public official proceedings, or of any statement, speech, argument, or debate in the course of the same, except upon proof of malice in making such report, which shall not be implied from the mere fact of publication.

Limitation On Privilege in Reporting Public Proceedings

Libelous remarks or comments connected with matter privileged by the last section receive no privilege by reason of their being so connected.

Threats to Publish Libel – Extortion

Every person who threatens another to publish a libel concerning him, or any parent, husband, wife, or child of such person, or member of his family, and every person who offers to prevent the publication of any libel upon another person, with intent to extort any money or other valuable consideration from any person, is guilty of a felony, punishable by less than a year of confinement.

[End of Resolution]
