TITLE 1 – CRIMINAL CODE

CHAPTER 18

CONTEMPTS

Section No.	Description
263.	Power of court.
264.	Contempts constituting crimes.
265.	Protection of the privacy of child victims and child witnesses.

TITLE 1 – CRIMINAL CODE

CHAPTER 17

CONTEMPTS

SECTION 263. Power of court

A court of the United States of America Republic shall have power to punish by fine or imprisonment, or both, at its discretion, such contempt of its authority, and none other, as stated in sections 264-265.

SECTION 264. Contempts constituting crimes

Any person, corporation or association willfully disobeying any lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree, or command of any court of the United States of America Republic or any court of the Province of the U.S.A.R., by doing any act or thing therein, or thereby forbidden, if the act or thing so done be of such character as to constitute also a criminal offense under any statute of the United States of America Republic or under the laws of any State in which the act was committed, shall be prosecuted for such contempt as provided in section 3691 of this title and shall be punished by a fine under this title or imprisonment, or both.

Such fine shall be paid to the United States of America Republic or to the complainant or other party injured by the act constituting the contempt, or may, where more than one is so damaged, be divided or apportioned among them as the court may direct, but in no case shall the fine to be paid to the United States of America Republic exceed, in case the accused is a natural person, the sum of $1,000, nor shall such imprisonment exceed the term of six months.

This section shall not be construed to relate to contempts committed in the presence of the court, or so near thereto as to obstruct the administration of justice, nor to contempts committed in disobedience of any lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree, or command entered in any suit or action brought or prosecuted in the name of, or on behalf of, the United States of America Republic, but the same, and all other cases of contempt not specifically embraced in this section may be punished in conformity to the prevailing usages at law. For purposes of this section, the term "State" includes a State of the United States of America Republic, the Province of the U.S.A.R., and any commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United States of America Republic.

SECTION 265. Protection of the privacy of child victims and child witnesses

A knowing or intentional violation of the privacy protection accorded by section 3509 of this title is a criminal contempt punishable by not more than one year's imprisonment, or a fine under this title, or both.
