

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA REPUBLIC

Continental Congress Assembled

PUBLIC LAW 111-19

Amended: 6 November 2016

TO ESTABLISH LAWS FOR CHILD SUPPORT

Pursuant to the United States of America Republic Constitution Amendment 19, Section 2, Clause 2, wherein it states; “The United States of America Republic shall make all Laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into Execution the foregoing Powers, and all other Powers vested by this Constitution in the Government of the United States of America Republic, or any Department or Officer thereof”, there shall hereby be designated “Child Support” provisions to serve this purpose. This amendment shall go into immediate force.

Introduced as Senate Joint Resolution 19, with 23 co-sponsors and as House Joint Resolution 19 with 23 co-sponsors, a request was delivered before the Continental Congress to honor and therefore establish laws to prevent failure to pay child support obligations.

The resolution suffered no exclusions, no demands that it became law. The amendments were made as follows: in Section 75 (g), the correction to “supplies” was made and a “,” was inserted after the word “food”.

The 1st Continental Congress of the United States of America Republic publicly declared 2009 the national "Year of the United States of America Republic". TITLE I
CRIMINAL CODE
CHAPTER 8 – CHILD SUPPORT

| Section No. | Description |
|--------------------|--------------------|
| 75 | CHILD SUPPORT |

TITLE I

CRIMINAL CODE

CHAPTER 8 – CHILD SUPPORT

SECTION 75. Failure to pay child support obligations

(a) OFFENSE.—Any person who—willfully fails to pay a support obligation with respect to a child who resides in another State, if such obligation has remained unpaid for a period longer than 1 year, or is greater than $5,000;

travels in interstate or foreign commerce with the intent to evade a support obligation, if such obligation has remained unpaid for a period longer than 1 year, or is greater than $5,000; or willfully fails to pay a support obligation with respect to a child who resides in another State, if such obligation has remained unpaid for a period longer than 2 years, or is greater than $10,000;

shall be punished as provided in subsection (c).

(b) PRESUMPTION.—The existence of a support obligation that was in effect for the time period charged in the indictment or information creates a rebuttable presumption that the obligor has the ability to pay the support obligation for that time period.

(c) PUNISHMENT.—The punishment for an offense under this section is—in the case of a first offense under subsection (a)(1), a fine under this title, imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or both; and in the case of an offense under paragraph (2) or (3) of subsection (a), or a second or subsequent offense under subsection (a)(1), a fine under this title, imprisonment for not more than 2 years, or both.

(d) MANDATORY RESTITUTION.—Upon a conviction under this section, the court shall order restitution under section 3663(a) in an amount equal to the total unpaid support obligation as it exists at the time of sentencing.

(e) VENUE.—With respect to an offense under this section, an action may be inquired of and prosecuted in a province court of the United States of America Republic for—the province in which the child who is the subject of the support obligation involved resided during a period during which a person described in subsection (a) (referred to in this subsection as an “obligor”) failed to meet that support obligation;
the province in which the obligor resided during a period described in paragraph (1); or any other province with jurisdiction otherwise provided for by law.

(f) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section—
the term “Indian tribe” has the meaning Indigenous People the Province shall Recognized Indian Tribes as being part of the descendant blood line of the Aboriginal People.
the term “State” includes State of the United States of America Republic, the Provinces of the U.S.A.R., and any territory, or possession of the United States of America Republic of America Republic;

(g) No parent defined; Mother or Father shall this law apply to that can show that they have been assisting in the care of the child's needs responsibly. This can be proven by cancelled money orders, or checks to the parent the child is living with, receipts for clothes, toys, school supplies, food, containing a wet ink signature by the parent the child resides with. The parents may make a contractual agreement between themselves for tuition or any other arrangements they see fit. These agreements require two witnesses one from the side of the family of each parent, or a friend. Affidavits must be signed under penalty of perjury. Therefore in order for a contract agreement to be deemed as valid it should contain four signatures and be recorded with the Province Records office.

(h) No one shall be put in jail for failure to pay child support if not working but shall be required to do community service in which if not being done can result in incarceration.
