SECTION 1307. Exceptions relating to certain advertisements and other information and to Province-conducted lotteries

(a) The provisions of sections 1301, 1302, 1303, and 1304 shall not apply to—

(1) an advertisement, list of prizes, or other information concerning a lottery conducted by a Province [Province as defined in Public Law 011-02] acting under the authority of Province law which is—contained in a publication published in that Province or in a Province which conducts such a lottery; or broadcast by a radio or television station licensed to a location in that Province or a Province which conducts such a lottery; or

(2) an advertisement, list of prizes, or other information concerning a lottery, gift enterprise, or similar scheme, other than one described in paragraph (1), that is authorized or not otherwise prohibited by the Province in which it is conducted and which is—conducted by a not-for-profit organization or a governmental organization; or conducted as a promotional activity by a commercial organization and is clearly occasional and ancillary to the primary business of that organization.

(b) The provisions of sections 1301, 1302, and 1303 shall not apply to the transportation or mailing—to addresses within a Province of equipment, tickets, or material concerning a lottery which is conducted by that Province acting under the authority of Province law; or to an addressee within a foreign country of equipment, tickets, or material designed to be used within that foreign country in a lottery which is authorized by the law of that foreign country.

(c) For the purposes of this section

- (1) “Province” means a Province of the United States of America Republic, or any territory of the United States of America Republic as outlined on Public Law 011-02; and
