TITLE 12

NOTARIAL ACTS AND LAWS

CHAPTER 1

Section 1: Appointment:

The Secretary of State may appoint and commission as notaries public for a 7-year term as many persons in the United States of America Republic as s/he deems necessary.

Section 2: Application:

Every applicant for appointment and commission as a Notarial Officer shall complete an application in a format prescribed by the Secretary of State to be filed with the Secretary of State, stating:

- (a) The applicant's official name, using El or Bey, as it appears on birth/baptismal record, or his or her current U.S.A.R.-issued driver's license or State Identification Card.
- (b) That the applicant is a Citizen/National of U.S.A.R.
- (c) Applicant's date of birth
- (d) That the applicant is able to read and write the English language
- (e) That the applicant has never been the holder of a notary public appointment that has been revoked or suspended during the past 10 years.
- (f) That the applicant's signature authorizes the office of the Secretary of State to conduct a "verification" to confirm the information provided in the application; and
- (g) Any other information the Secretary of State deems necessary.

Section 3. How to Become a Notarial Officer

Every National/Citizen appointed as a Notarial Officer shall:

- Take the notary education course. A first time applicant for a notary commission must submit proof that the applicant has, within one year prior to the application, completed at least three hours of interactive or classroom instruction satisfactorily and pass a written examination prescribed by the Secretary of State;
- Be 18 years of age or older (there is no maximum age set by statute);
- Be a National/Citizen of the United States of America Republic;
- Complete a course of study approved by the Secretary of State;

- Complete the application. Provide all of the information requested on the application form, along with a $10.00 fee for application processing. If there is any information missing, your application will be returned to you until all necessary materials have been submitted.
- Submit the application to the U.S.A.R. home office. Once your application has been fully completed, you must submit your application to the State for review.

Section 4. Approved Applications

If your application is approved, you will receive your commission certificate from the Secretary of State. You are ready to order your notary seal. Please confirm that the information on the certificate are correct; if so, you may proceed to perform your duties as Notarial Officer. If there is any error, please contact the Secretary of State for assistance.

If you possess a seal from your current commission, please use your current seal until the commission expires. You may not use your new notary seal until the first day of your new commission. Destroy your old seal to prevent its misuse.

Section 5. Denied Applications

The decision to appoint a U.S.A.R. Notarial Officer is a matter within the sole discretion of the Secretary of State, and is not subject to subsequent review. When re-applying, you are welcome to provide any supplemental materials that demonstrate your fitness to serve in office as a notary, such as letters of recommendation from professional contacts, but are not required to do so.

Section 6. Disciplinary Guidelines

The Secretary of State is responsible for appointing and commissioning notarial officers in the United States of America republic for all Provinces. In the performance of such duties, the Secretary of State strives to ensure that applicants and commissioned notaries possess the requisite honesty, credibility, truthfulness, and integrity to fulfill the responsibilities of the position. Good faith and character is a must to the qualifications of the office of a notarial officer, given the nature of the duties and responsibilities. Government, business, and the citizens and nationals depend on the integrity of notarial officers to take the required steps in authenticating signatures and properly completing transactions. The issue of good character is the foundation of all notarial acts.

The disciplinary guidelines are intended to facilitate due process and uniformity in reviewing notarial officer applications, investigating alleged violations of notarial law, and instituting administrative actions against notarial officers and applicants. The disciplinary guidelines are designed to assist U.S.A.R. law judges, public ministers, notaries public, notary public applicants, and others involved in the disciplinary process. The disciplinary guidelines address only the Secretary of State's review of applications, investigations, and administrative actions and are not a comprehensive overview of the criminal and civil offenses in the U.S.A.R. codes, which may subject a notarial officers to a civil penalty or to criminal prosecution.

~Appendix A~

Notarial
Certification of Authority

Upon the receipt of a written request, the notarized document, and a fee of $1.50 payable to the Secretary of State or County Clerk, the Office of the Secretary of State or County Clerk shall provide a “certificate of authority” in substantially the following form:

I _____, Secretary of State for the United States of America Republic, which office is an office of record having a seal, certify that _____ (notary's name), by whom the foregoing or annexed document was notarized, was, on _____(date), appointed and commissioned a Notarial Officer of the United States of America Republic, in and for the Province of _____ and that as such, full faith and credit is and ought to be given to this Notarial Officer's official attestations.

In testimony whereof, I have affixed my signature and the seal of this office on _____ . (date)
